

I am in favor of consumer choices. Deaf and hoh people should have freedom to make their own VRS calls using the same device without restrictions. I am against VRS providers who put blocks on their devices limiting consumers to only use that specific VRS provider.